Gentlemen:

Kindly advise if you are able to supply the number of your Quarterly, Vol. XVI, containing pp. 303 to 327.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Gentlemen:

Your courteous letter of November 8th is at hand and I regret that our library is not in a position to act upon your suggestion at the present time. It is possible that this condition may be remedied during 1932, and if that promise becomes a fact I have placed your letter where it will serve as a reminder.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
